

45th Annual NADOA Institute Program

September 5-7, 2018
Gaylord Opryland Resort
Nashville, Tennessee

Wednesday

Join us for TWO extra educational seminars including hands-on calculations and Unclaimed Property
that's not just the same old thing.

COME EARLY and take advantage of this educational opportunity

Registration

Registration is open Wednesday, September 5th,
7:30a - 9:00a and 1:00p - 6:00p

Keynotes

Eric Mullins

LIME ROCK RESOURCES

Managing Director and Co-Chief Executive Officer

Eric Mullins is the Co-Chief Executive Officer, jointly leading the team since co-founding the Lime Rock Resources strategy in 2005. Mr. Mullins oversees all strategic, financial, and operational aspects of the Lime Rock Resources funds. Prior to joining Lime Rock, Mr. Mullins served as a Managing Director in the Investment Banking Division of Goldman Sachs where he led numerous financing, structuring, and strategic advisory transactions for public and private E&P companies in the division's Natural Resources Group.

Lloyd H. Hetrick NEWFIELD EXPLORATION Co.

PE CSP, Op. Engineering Advisor

Mr. Hetrick is a registered professional engineer (PE) in Texas and is recognized as a certified safety professional (CSP)—a national certification. He has more than 38 years of diverse experience spanning all phases of exploration and production including: drilling, completions, production, decommissioning, health, safety and environmental, acquisitions, divestitures and mechanical integrity. Hetrick's industry knowledge covers domestic and international, shallow and deepwater, onshore conventional and unconventional developments.

Jason Lucas, Attorney STEPTOE & JOHNSON PLLC

Energy and mineral law is the focus of Mr. Lucas' practice. He regularly assists his clients with mineral title examinations and title opinions for Fortune 500 oil and gas developers. Mr. Lucas also works with clients across the nation with major energy transactions, including review of title opinions, organizing defect and curative reports, purchase and sale agreements and preparing closing documents. Jason Lucas has also served in many capacities with local and national oil and gas associations. Mr. Lucas holds a Juris Doctorate from the Ohio State University and obtained his B.A. from the same. He is certified in Ohio and Pennsylvania.

Speakers

Joe Anderson, CDOA

CIMAREX

Joe G. Anderson is the Land Administration Manager for Cimarex Energy Co. in Tulsa, Oklahoma. He directs the company's Division Order, Leases and Contracts, and Records departments. Mr. Anderson also served as the 1995 President of NADOA.

Melody Baker

OILDEX

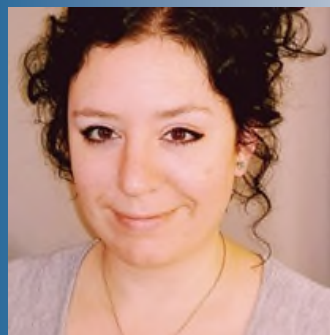

With 10 years of experience in the oil and gas industry, Ms. Baker started at a small operator for several years before settling in at a large E&P. She came to Oildex from PDS Energy where she held a leadership role in the call center. At Oildex, she handles the owner relations call center which includes onboarding of new clients and agents while also overseeing daily operations.

Kacie Bevers, Associate

STEPTOE & JOHNSON PLLC

With a focus in the area of energy law, Ms. Bevers' title practice includes attention to division order title opinions. In transactional practice, she counsels clients on due diligence review for the acquisition of oil and gas interests. Ms. Bevers has gained hands-on experience as a field Landman prior to her work with the firm, uniquely equipping her with the necessary problem-solving and troubleshooting skills required to successfully represent clients.

Pamela Daniels

OILDEX

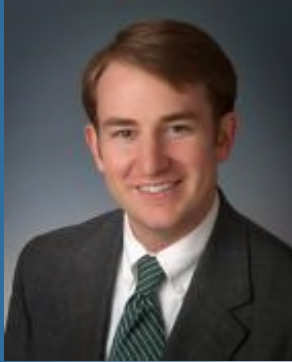

Starting with several years experience with a midsized operator in Owner Relations before moving into a Division Order Analyst role, Ms. Daniels has 8 years of experience in the oil and gas industry. Her experience is mostly in Land Administration, focused on Division Order work and maintaining Title for Texas and Louisiana properties. She has gained vast knowledge about the interworking's of Land Administration, working closely with Analysts, Landmen, Techs, Title Attorneys and Land/Mineral Owners.

Dr. Patrick Fitzgerald, PhD, Ed D, JD

Dr. Patrick Fitzgerald, PhD, Ed D, JD, is a Distinguished Visiting Professor and Expert in Energy Land Management at the Franklin L. Burns School of Real Estate & Construction Management in the Daniels College of Business at the University of Denver. He regularly offers courses in the Energy Land Management Certificate Programs and graduate courses such as land management, energy finance, and petroleum economics. Concurrently, Dr. Fitzgerald practices law with the firm Fitzgerald & Associates with offices in Dallas and the Oklahoma City area where his practice includes various areas of law related to the oil and gas industry.

Speakers

Andrew Graham

STEPTOE & JOHNSON PLLC

The areas of energy and mineral law (oil & gas, coal and coalbed methane), real estate, and commercial transactions are the focus of Andrew Graham's practice. He regularly assists clients with mineral title examinations, coordinating and performing due diligence, buying and selling mineral assets, and issues related to surface use and compensation arising from mineral development. Mr. Graham is admitted in Texas and West Virginia.

Debra Heckman, CDOA, CPLTA

A native Houstonian and 20 years of industry experience, Debra Heckman earned her BA in Photography, with a minor in Spanish, from Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, Texas in 1989. She is currently earning her MBA from Sam Houston. Ms. Heckman has been with Hilcorp Energy Company for 13 years working as a Division Order Analyst and moved into A & D as a Property Transition analyst. She serves as one of the "super users" for the land department and enjoys training and sharing knowledge with her fellow analysts.

Frank Hinton, Attorney

ELLIAS, BOOKS, BROWN & NELSON

Mr. Hinton is an attorney in Oklahoma City and practices primarily in the area of oil & gas law and oil & gas title examination. He is a member of the Oklahoma City Mineral Lawyers Society, the Oklahoma City Association of Professional Landmen, and the Energy and Natural Resources Law and Real Property Law Sections of the Oklahoma Bar Association.

Curt Horne, CPL

A Landman since 1981, Mr. Horne has experience in Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana and Montana, earning his CPL in 1999. He currently serves on the Legislative and Regulatory Affairs Committee as Assistant Chair and has previously chaired the Certification, Ethics, Publications and Field Landman Committees. A member of NHAPL, and recipient of multiple AAPL awards, Mr. Horne serves as an instructor for Energy Land Institute, the AAPL CPL/RPL Exam Review and other AAPL seminars, and is an expert in a variety of topics, including the Oil & Gas Lease, Interest Calculations, Conveyancing, Ethics and more.

Sheryl L. Howe, Attorney WELLBORN SULLIVAN MECK & TOOLEY PC

Specializing in oil & gas title, transactions and issues related to real property law, Ms. Howe has worked on many issues relating to federal oil & gas leases and federal exploratory units. She assists clients in drafting agreements and title curative documents. Ms. Howe is the author of a number of articles on oil & gas topics.

Speakers

Luanne Johnson, CDOA, CPLTA NEWFIELD EXPLORATION CO

With over 20 years of experience, Luanne Johnson is known by co-workers as Ms. Organization, encouraging many to become more organized, particularly with digital information. Ms. Johnson has served on the NADOA Certification Committee as well as numerous board positions for both HADOA and NADOA. With a B.A. from Sam Houston State University, she is familiar with mentoring and passing her knowledge and tricks of the trade to others.

Lucretia Jones NEWFIELD EXPLORATION CO

In 2016, Lucretia Jones accepted a position with Newfield Exploration Company, as a Senior Land Administration Specialist, where she is responsible for the unclaimed property reporting and handles the 1099's. Ms. Jones is a member of both HADOA and NADOA. She has also served on the board of HADOA for the past six years and also on NADOA Committees since 2011.

William King, Sr Manager SALT, Unclaimed Property KPMG US

Unclaimed property consulting and compliance services is Will King's focus with companies across a broad range of industries. His work includes audit defense, VDA support and guidance, quantifying exposure, resolving complex compliance questions, implementing outsourced annual reporting solutions, providing training, and developing policies and procedures. Mr. King has his JD from Suffolk University Law School and a BA from The George Washington University.

April Luedecke, CDOA

Midland Texas is where Ms. Luedecke cut her teeth in the oil & gas industry in 1997. Working for Landmen brokers and independent E&Ps, Ms. Luedecke now works as a Division Order Analyst in the Houston area. She is known for expertise in calculations, giving credit to one outstanding math teacher from Marfa, Texas. Ms. Luedecke strives to help others to learn the principles behind good calculations. April is the current President of HADOA, past President of PBADOA and serves on the NADOA Institute committee.

Quin Moore, Manager KEANE

Well versed in the oil & gas industry. Quin Moore provides expert analysis on mineral proceeds potentially subject to escheat. He specializes in accounting, data analysis and risk analysis. Mr. Moore provides direction and assistance for initial compliance filings and provides audit support services. Quin is pursuing his MBA from Western Washington University and obtained his BA from Pacific University in 2017.

Speakers

Eli Murray, CDOA, CPLTA, New Ventures Landman RSP Permian LLC

A member of the NADOA Certification Committee and Corresponding Secretary for DALWORTH, Ms. Murray progressed from file clerk with Harding Company to DO Analyst at EXCO Resources, and New Ventures Landman with RSP Permian. She is a graduate of TAMU and is currently enrolled in the University of Oklahoma's School of Law for a Master of Legal Studies in Oil, Gas & Energy Law. Ms. Murray was honorably discharged from the US Army Reserves in 2014. She loves puzzles and believes that anyone who is willing to work hard at understanding Land can excel in the field.

Donna Reeves

Following a brief career in music as a teacher, Ms. Reeves transitioned to oil & gas in 1981 and has never looked back. Her experience as a DO Analyst has allowed her to share her knowledge with others, often presenting for local and national associations as well as in-house educational opportunities. NADOA's membership has been fortunate to learn from Ms. Reeves in the past and the board is excited to have her back with fresh new topics. Donna is a graduate of Sam Houston State University with a BA of Music Education.

Matthew Schlensker, of Council STEPTOE & JOHNSON PLLC

Matt Schlensker focuses his practice in the areas of mineral title and energy law. He has extensive experience in drafting title opinions, division orders, and limited acquisition title opinions. He has handled various complex oil and gas title issues, and has analyzed and interpreted deeds, contracts, agreements, assignments, and other title instruments affecting surface and mineral estates, royalty interests, and developmental interests. Mr. Schlensker is Texas Board of Legal Specialization, Certification in Oil, Gas & Mineral Law, State Bars of Texas, North Dakota and Oklahoma.

Christian Sizemore, Land Lead NEWFIELD EXPLORATION

Mr. Sizemore was destined for the life of a Landman and spent over a decade in the field working for Lonewolf Energy, the company his father built. Here he was able to interact and gain experience across much of the Rockies including many of the American Indian Reservations. At this point in his career he knew he wanted to gain "in-house" experience which led to joining Newfield Exploration in 2011. At Newfield, he has worked across all areas of operations in multiple business units located in Colorado, Oklahoma and now Texas. During his time in the Rockies he worked with the Ute Indian Tribe handling Land activities in the Uinta Basin. Mr. Sizemore has a BS in Business Administration with a focus in Finance, from Montana State University-Billings.

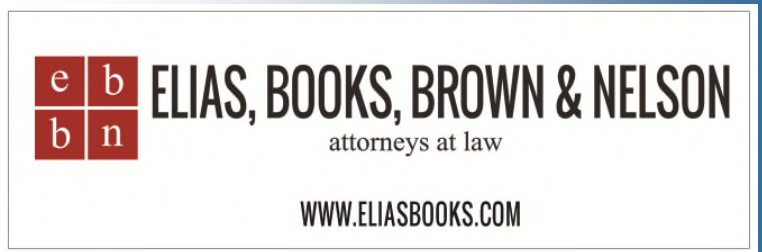

Pamela Wentz

GEORGESON

As the National Practice Leader for the unclaimed property consulting practice, Pam is responsible for business development and the management and delivery of consulting services. Ms. Wentz brings over 20 years of diverse and extensive experience to clients of Georgeson's unclaimed asset services. Pam has technical expertise and experience in a broad range of industries. Ms. Wentz has an MBA from University of Mary in Bismark, ND and a BA from Mouny Marty College.

Speaker Sponsors

Thank You for your Support!